JUDGE GOODNIGHT BETTER.

Franklin, Ky., June 28.—Circuit Judge Goodnight, who has been critically ill, is now out of danger.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., JUNE 28.—

Frank Miller, the notorious crook and safe blower, was hanged here this morning shortly before 11 o'clock. He was stoical to the last, and never lost his wonderful nerve.

He was the first man to use nitroglycerine for safe blowing purposes. He was executed for the murder of Policeman J. W. Adams, who, with Policeman G. W. Kirkly, was killed by Miller and his pal, Frank Duncan, one night in March of last year, after the two crooks had been arrested for robbing the Standard Oil company's safe.

The prisoner asserted his innocence and said his execution was a judicial murder. A priest called on him, but after he had departed Miller remarked to a newspaper man: "We can't get together on this religious business." When another newspaper man asked him what was the good word, he grimly replied: "The good word is 10:30 tomorrow morning," referring to the time he expected to hang.

SUICIDES BY HANGING.

Middleboro, June 28.—Mrs. Pierson, wife of a prominent minister, suicided near Big Stone Gap by hanging this morning. Ill health is supposed to have been the cause of the suicide.

DESPONDENT HE SUICIDED.

ANOTHER FIRE.

MAYFIELD SUFFERS FROM THE THIRD VISITATION IN THREE DAYS.

Sparks from an engine in the barn resulted in the loss of the Griggs & Dowdy rehandling house at Mayfield about noon today. Fifteen thousand pounds of tobacco were burned, entailing a loss of $1,000, with $500 insurance.

FOUND GUILTY.

MISS MORRISON CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER AT EL DORADO, KAN.

El Dorado, Kan., June 28.—The Jessie Morrison jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree, penalty for which is imprisonment from three to five years.

There was a rumor this morning that the twelfth juror who had at first stood for the acquittal of Jessie Morrison had given in and that the subject of discussion was the degree of murder or manslaughter on which she should be found guilty. It was said that the majority of juror were for murder in the first degree and the others were for manslaughter in the second degree.

Miss Morrison's lawyers filed notice of appeal. The prisoner was taken to her cell and locked up. The jury wrangled for nearly thirty hours over the verdict.

NOTED—A grocery clerk. Appointed at the Paducah Sun.

PLANS MADE

Congressman C. K. Wheeler Will Deliver the Address of Welcome.

RECEPTION AT THE PALMER

The Paducah Merchants Will Be Allowed to Tell the Louisville Merchants About Paducah.

COMMITTEES TO BE APPOINTED

Congressman Chas. K. Wheeler will deliver the address of welcome at the reception of Louisville business men here on July 3. Mayor Lang was never much of a public speaker and has succeeded in getting the congressmen to do the talk for him on this occasion.

The program will be so far as is known, that a committee of citizens appointed by the mayor and Commercial club will meet the party at the Illinois Central depot and take them to the city in cars.

At the Palmer dinner will be served, with refreshments, and at the city hall as soon as the crowd arrives the address of welcome will be delivered by Congressman Wheeler, and the business men of Paducah will supplement it with remarks.

As Mayor Lang joyously stated in his letter to the secretary of the Louisville board of trade, the Paducah merchants will inform the visitors of the many advantages Paducah has over Louisville, and when they have all finished if there is anything left to say the visitors will be allowed to say it. There will be nothing elaborate planned in the way of a reception, but while they are here everything possible will be done to entertain them and show them true hospitality.

From here they go to Mayfield and Fulton, where preparations are also being made to entertain them.

The committee appointed by Mayor Lang is as follows: Hon. D. A. Yeiser, A. Kirkland, F. C. Burnett, J. A. Baper, H. C. Bronaugh, W. E. Cochran, Charles K. Wheeler and Wm. Kraus.

President W. F. Paxton, of the Commercial club, has not yet appointed his committee, but will do so tomorrow.

CRENSHAW CUT.

CONDUCTOR KIRKLAND, WELL KNOWN HERE, HAS TROUBLE.]

A dispatch from Marietta, Ga., gives an account of a difficulty Hon. T. C. Crenshaw, president of the Georgia railroad commission had with Conductor J. H. Kirkland, formerly on one of the N. C. and St. L. runs out of Paducah, but now in charge of a sleeping car on the Atlanta-St. Louis run.

According to Mr. Crenshaw's statement, the conductor took exception to Mr. Crenshaw's failure to produce his transportation. Words passed between the men, when Mr. Crenshaw, it is said, knocked the conductor in to a car window, breaking the glass. The conductor then drew his knife, as the story is related, by Mr. Crenshaw, and cut the railroad commissioner twice in the neck and once in the shoulder. The conductor was arrested at Marietta. The train was held until he gave bond and proceeded on his trip. Mr. Crenshaw lives in Marietta.

It seems from the above that Conductor Kirkland was not the aggressor in the trouble.

FIVE HELD

Mrs. Mary Eich and Boone Sears Go Free in Police Court.

DECISION RENDERED TODAY

Mrs. Gaynor Wept Copious Tears When She Had to Go Back to Jail After Court.

M'CKACKEN HAS JURISDICTION

The notorious rape case that had been in the police court since Monday morning and had attracted one of the largest crowds ever seen there, was decided by Judge Sanders this morning. Five of the seven defendants were held, John Bulger, John Gaynor and wife, Frankie Stone, Frank Eich, while the evidence against two of them was insufficient and they were released. These were Mrs. Mary Eich and Boone Sears.

The Gaynor woman wept when the decision was read, for it meant that the gang will remain in jail until September before they can get a trial.

The facts in the case are well known. Two weeks ago or thereabout two women appeared at the boat occupied by Mrs. Beasley and her fourteen year old daughter, Edith May, and asked that the latter be allowed to go to a party they were to give on Tennessee street. The girl's mother finally allowed her to go, and she was gone a night and day.

When she returned she told her mother that she had been taken by the women to a skiff, in which were four men and one woman, and made to accompany them to Livingston Point, Livingston county, where they kept her all night and the next day and made her submit to the most revolting outrages. The girl was alone with no one to assist her, and could not get back until they had finished their orgie and brought her.

The crowd, which is the most disreputable of the South Side, was arrested and a week ago Monday officers from Livingston county came and laid claim to the prisoners, saying that the offense was committed in Livingston county.

It was finally settled that if a conspiracy was formed in this county to take the girl to Livingston county and outrage her, it would give this county jurisdiction. Judge Sanders heard evidence on this from Monday until yesterday and this morning decided that the evidence of a conspiracy was plain, and the presumption that the crime had been committed was strong, hence he decided that this county has jurisdiction, and held the five named to answer, and released the other two. As the charge is not bailable, and the prisoners probably could not give bond if it was, they were remanded to jail for the summer. They cannot get a trial until September.

At the conclusion of court Attorney Gilbert stated that he would move for a new trial or take out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Hubbard for the release of the prisoners. Judge Sanders told him to make his motion and file his reasons, and it would be given due consideration, and if it was overruled the attorney could then take out a writ of habeas corpus. He said further that the commonwealth had additional and stronger evidence that it could introduce if necessary.

The grandmother of one of the defendants, Mrs. Gaynor, died this morning and an effort will be made to get the girl out of jail long enough to attend the funeral.

VACCINATION PROGRESSING.

MANY PEOPLE BEING DOSED WITH THE VACCINE ALL OVER TOWN.

Dr. J. W. Pendley and others are busy vaccinating the population in the northern portion of the city. They are experiencing some little trouble in accomplishing their purpose with the colored residents and think some cases will require the interference of the law. Several days ago one colored woman was fined $10 and costs in the police court for breach of ordinance, by refusing to let the physician vaccinate her, and if necessary others will receive the same treatment. In several cases when the doctor called at a house the occupants have fled and one colored man ran across several yards and in crawling through a fence a pistol was discharged, frightening all the witnesses who thought he was firing at the physician. The doctor endeavor to catch the negroes napping and whenever a crowd is found assembled they close in and vaccinate them. Last night several dozen were assembled on a flying Jenny, corner Twelfth and Trimble streets and the doctor made a raid on them and succeeded in vaccinating them all. If they will not be vaccinated willingly the law will be brought to bear on them and every offender will be subjected to a fine.

An unsuccessful attempt to vaccinate the employees of the Cohanus Manufacturing Co. was made this morning by Dr. Pendley, assisted by Mr. Enoch Lynn and Officer Ed Clark. The employees were at work when the attempt was made and could not leave their work to undergo the operation. They will probably be vaccinated when working hours are over tonight.

MARRIED LAST EVENING.

CASE CONTINUED.

James Wilson, the man arrested on a shanty boat yesterday for a breach of the peace committed the night before, was this morning continued in the police court until tomorrow.

TO REDUCE. INSURANCE COMPANIES WILL CUT DOWN AMOUNTS ON TOBACCO. It was rumored in insurance circles this morning, says yesterday's Louisville Times, that a number of the big companies would cut down the amounts they are carrying on tobacco warehouses in this state. The proposed reduction in this line of insurance will be the result of the Mayfield and other similar fires which have occurred recently in which the insurance companies have lost heavily. A prominent insurance man said this morning that some of the companies were considering the step. "To-bacco warehouses and re-handling houses in this state have been burning with remarkable regularity," he said, "and we have to protect ourselves in some way. We recently raised the rate on this class of risks. If the companies refuse to take these risks, the owners will offer a higher premium to get their property insured. This would practically result in a raising of the rates without the insurance companies themselves making the advance."	BROKE THE DOOR. LIEUT. MOORE CATCHES A COLORED COUPLE IN A CHURCH. Lieut. Moore, of the night police force, was notified last night that the colored janitor at one of the churches had a woman in the cloak room. He went around and after having to break in the door arrested the couple. They proved to be Steve George and Lizzie Vinegar, and this morning both pleaded guilty in the police court and were fined $30 and costs on a charge of immorality. HORSE SUFFERS FROM HEAT. A horse attached to one of the F. W. Cook beer wagons became overheated at the corner of Court and Seventh streets this morning shortly before noon and fell to the ground. The animal was set on its feet again but was in a bad condition. This is the first case this summer of a horse becoming overheated. PLACING THE TEACHERS. The teachers elected Tuesday night by the board of education will be assigned to places some time before July 15. A called meeting will be held for the purpose.	INSURANCE ADJUSTMENT. APPRAISERS AT WORK ON THE MISSES ABRAMS' STOCK—NO DECISION. Neither the loss on the stock of the Misses Abrams nor S. Polz has been adjusted by the insurance men. The Misses Abrams desired an appraisal, and Miss Abrams was appointed to represent herself and Captain J. M. Ezell the insurance company, and they are now at work on the stock. There seems to be some disagreement on the Polz loss, and it has been adjusted. CASEY WAIVED. HE WAS SENT TO JAIL IN DE FAULT OF A $300 BOND. John Casey, alias Jackson, colored, who was arrested in Owensboro a few days ago on a charge of manslaughter, cutting Annie Clark, on South Third street, was last evening and was presented to the court and a court order, being held in lieu of $300, was given.
